PRESS RELEASE N°056/FECAFOOT/SG/2022

The Cameroon Football Federation is pleased to announce to the national and international public opinion that the footballer BRYAN MBEUMO has decided to play for the Cameroon national football team, the Indomitable Lions. This decision, which is the result of extensive discussions with the President of the Federation, is motivated by the renewed credibility of FECAFOOT and the professionalism in the management of Cameroon's national football teams.

Bryan Mbeumo was born on 7 August 1999 in Avallon France. He is a professional footballer who plays as a striker for Brentford FC in the English Premier League. Last season, he scored 8 goals and made 7 assists in 38 matches for his club in all competitions. He also has 3 caps for the France's U20 team and 7 for the U-21s.
