PRESS RELEASE N°058 FECAFOOT/SG/2024

The Cameroon Football Federation (FECAFOOT) would like to inform national and international public opinion that a series of serious events, took place on Sunday June 02, 2024, during the preparations for the start of the Indomitable Lions of Cameroon training camp.

During a meeting convened on 02/06/2024 at the Hilton Hotel, the Head Coach Mr. Marc BRYS decided to reshuffle the Administrative and Technical Staff appointed by the Executive Committee, the only competent authority in this case.

Moreover, the hotel chosen by the latter, for reasons unknown to FECAFOOT, refused the payment agreed upon several days ago for accommodation facilities. Similarly, FECAFOOT has noticed that individuals present on site are taking a number of initiatives at the request of the Ministry of Sports and Physical Education.

Even worse, the National Team and FECAFOOT staff have been subject to intimidation by the massively mobilizes forces of law and order, thereby making it impossible to carry out the usual welcoming operations.

Mindful of the situation and to avoid being an accomplice to public disorder and to actions that disregard both the recommendations of His Excellency the President of the Republic and the rules and practices in force at FIFA competitions,

The FECAFOOT Emergency Committee, in its session today at 11 a.m., took note of FECAFOOT's exclusion from the preparations for the games between the Cameroon national team and those of Cape Verde and Angola on June 08 and 11, 2024 in Yaoundé and Luanda.

Done in Yaounde, June 03 2024

THE SECRETARY GENERAL

DJOUNANG BLAISE
