PRESS RELEASE N°061/FECAFOOT/SG/2024

For several days now, a rumour circulating on social media has been causing confusion about the tickets issued by the Cameroon Football Federation (FECAFOOT) for the Cameroon vs. Cape Verde match at the Yaoundé Omnisports Stadium on 8 June 2024, which is part of the FIFA 2026 TM World Cup qualifying campaign.

This rumour is being cleverly fuelled by people lurking in the shadows who have made it their mission to tarnish the image of Cameroon and its National Team, the Indomitable Lions, ahead of this important event.

FECAFOOT, as a member of FIFA and CAF, represents these two institutions in the organisation of international matches at local level. As such, the Federation has taken the usual steps to make the Yaoundé Omnisports Stadium available by paying the relevant invoice to ONIES.

To this end, match tickets issued by the Federation will be the only valid means of public access to this Saturday's match.

The tickets are available at the following prices: FCFA 2,000, 5,000, 10,000, 25,000 and 50,000 at:

- FECAFOOT Headquarters;
- Centre Regional League;
- Edimo-Playce shop;
- Tradex Service Points : Bastos, Carrefour Essomba, Cité Verte, Eman, Mballa II, Messamendongo, Mvolyé, Nsam.

FECAFOOT is calling on supporters of the Indomitable Lions to turn out in force on Saturday to help them to victory.

Done in Yaounde, June 06, 2024.
