PRESS RELEASE N°069/FECAFOOT/PDT/SG/2024

The Cameroon Football Federation is deeply saddened by the news of the deaths today of former players Landry NGUEMO TSAFACK, who died in a road accident, and Samson CHE, who succumbed to illness.

Landry NGUEMO TSAFACK, although a reserved figure, the former Indomitable Lion has made his mark with a number of prominent appearances for prestigious clubs in Europe.

From 2006 to 2014, his lengthy involvement with the Indomitable Lions was marked by an African Cup of Nations final (2008) and two appearances at the World Cup (2010 and 2014).

His former team-mates remember him as a hard worker who was always ready to serve his country.

Samson CHE was undoubtedly one of the leading figures in local football in the early 2000s, having worked for a number of 1st Division clubs.

Their sudden and tragic deaths leave a huge void not only in their families, as in the Cameroonian football family, for whom they had great ambitions.

The President of FECAFOOT extends his condolences to the friends, family and acquaintances of the deceased and joins them to the heartfelt sympathy of the members of his Executive Committee and all those involved in Cameroonian football.
